

Five Men

There are five houses in a row on a street. In each lives a man of a different nationality, each preferring a different beverage, driving a different make of car, and having different jobs.

1. The Englishman lives in the red house.
2. The Egyptian is a salesman.
3. Coffee is drunk in the green house.
4. The Italian drinks beer.
5. The green house is immediately to the right of the brown house.
6. The man who drives a Chevrolet is a teacher.
7. The man in the yellow house drives a VW.
8. Milk is drunk in the middle house.
9. The Frenchman lives in the first house on the left.
10. The man who drives a Ford lives next door to the carpenter.
11. The VW driver lives next door to the engineer.

12. The man who drives a Volvo drinks tea.

13. The Irishman drives a Ford.

14. The Frenchman lives next door to the blue house.

QUESTION: Who drinks wine? Who is the painter?
